Older Drivers: An International Perspective

AGENDA

9:00  Introductions and Workshop Goals
Lesley Ross, University of Alabama at Birmingham

9:15  The Licensing and Safety of Older Drivers in Britain
Kit Mitchell, Chartered Institution of Highways and Transportation, UK (retired)

9:45  Older driver research in Australia: What have we learned; Where to from here?
Judith Charlton, Associate Director, Behavioural Safety Science, Monash University Accident Research Centre (MUARC), Australia

10:15  Break

10:30  Improving Safety and Mobility for Older Road Users in Australia and Japan: The FHWA/AASHTO International Scan Tour
Susan T. Chrysler, Ph.D. Director of Research, National Advanced Driving Simulator, University of Iowa

11:15  Older Driver Safety in the Netherlands
Fred Wegman, SWOV Institute for Road Safety Research, Netherlands

12:00 - 1:30  TRB Lunch

1:30  Promoting Safe Driving at an Older Age
Sophia Vardaki, Road Safety Engineer, National Technical University of Athens (NTUA), Department of Transportation Planning and Engineering, Greece

2:00  Older Driver Safety – Canadian Programmes
Jamie Dow, Medical Advisor on Road Safety, Société de l’assurance automobile du Québec (SAAQ), Canada

2:30  Developing and Maintaining International Collaborations for Older Driver Safety Research
Discussant: Kit Mitchell, Chartered Institution of Highways and Transportation, UK (retired)
  - Jennie Oxley, Associate Director Regional Engagement and MUARC Malaysia, Monash University Accident Research Centre
  - Lisa J. Molnar, Michigan Center for Advancing Safe Transportation throughout the Lifespan (M-CASTL), University of Michigan Transportation Research Institute

3:15  Break

3:30  Translating Human Factors Programs to the Marketplace
Discussant: Karlene Ball, University of Alabama at Birmingham, Chair, Committee for the Safe Mobility of Older Persons
  - Translating Laboratory Methods Into Reliable Tools for Research and Clinical Practice, Loren Staplin, TransAnalytics, LLC
  - Lifelong Driver: An Innovative Training Program for Extending Safe Mobility, David Carr, Washington University School of Medicine, and Jane Stutts, UNC Highway Safety Research Center, retired
The DriveABLE experience over 15 Years with Health Care Professionals and Government Licensing Programs. Allen R. Dobbs, DriveABLE Assessment Centres, Inc. Psychology and Neurosciences, University of Alberta, Canada

4:30  Summary and Discussion
Kit Mitchell, Chartered Institution of Highways and Transportation, UK (retired)
Lesley Ross, University of Alabama at Birmingham

5:00  Adjourn